

SARVAH Venture Development Program 2026

A Complete Innovation to Startup Journey
(Supported by SGGS Alumni Batch of 2001)

About the Program

SARVAH Venture Development Program is a structured initiative designed to support students in transforming innovative ideas into real startups. It provides a complete pathway from idea generation to prototype development and startup incubation, offering mentorship, funding support, and access to resources.

About the Ecosystem

SGGSIE&T, Nanded A leading engineering institute known for academic excellence, research, and innovation.

SARVAH Incubation Foundation
A not-for-profit incubation platform by alumni promoting innovation and startup development.

Program Objectives

- 1 Promote innovation and identify high-potential ideas
- 2 Support prototype development
- 3 Provide mentorship and guidance
- 4 Encourage collaboration across disciplines
- 5 Build a strong startup ecosystem
- 6 Promote entrepreneurial thinking

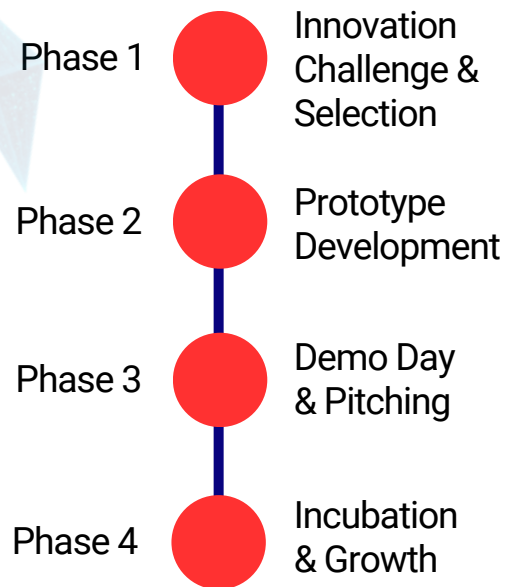

Domains

AI/ML Manufacturing
Sustainability Healthcare
Agriculture Open Innovation

Program Objectives

- All current students of SGGSI&T (any branch, any year)
- SGGGS graduates (up to 2019-20 batch)

Program Structure

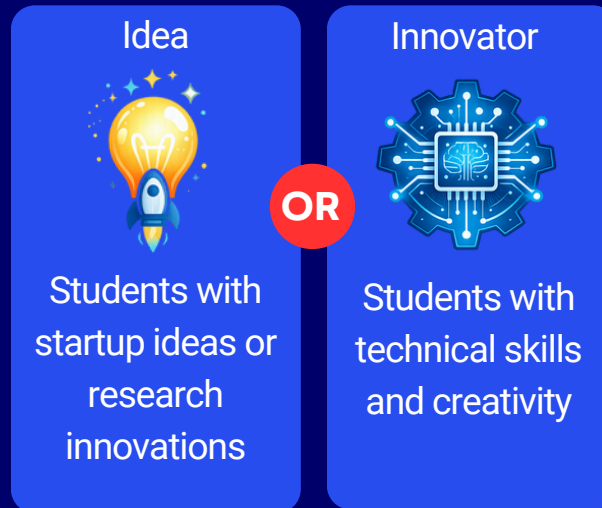

Last Date

25

JUNE 2026

Participation Tracks

APPLY NOW

Funding Support

- Prototype & Resource Support up to ₹50,000 (90% supported by SARVAH, 10% innovator contribution)
- Investment Support of ₹2-2.5 Lakhs for Selected Prototype-Stage Startups

Mentorship & Support

- Guidance from mentors
- Product development support
- Startup guidance
- Pitching training

Infrastructure & Resources

- AICTE IDEA Lab
- Robotics facilities
- Industry-linked labs
- Research infrastructure
- Center of Excellence (CoE): Signal & Image Processing