Uday Chaitanya Saamala

Mr. Uday Chaitanya Saamala is an entrepreneur by profession and trainer by passion. He completed his graduation in Electrical and electronics engineering from KG reddy college of engineering and technology and Post graduation in Business management from Osmania University.

He is a self-made entrepreneur and started 10+ start-ups into software development, graphic design, digital marketing, HR recruiting and trainings in 6 years of his entrepreneurial journey and faced many failures. Now he is running successfully 3 start-ups of solar power research, Research and development into robotics and STEM education and Event management.

He is founder and CEO of Omnytrix Integrated Solutions, instant security chief of Life of Girl, Co-founder and CEO of Forte9 Institutional Services. He is also working as supporting partner and mentor for few more start-ups.

He worked as AutoCAD developer, electronics R&D, Trouble-shooter and online utilities engineer in various companies.

Mr. Uday Chaitanya Conducted many workshops, seminars, events for students and trained over 10000+ students under technical, non-technical, motivational and personality skills development. He had been invited as guest lecturer in IIIT Kadapa, Brilliant group of institutions, SRIT Coimbattore, KG Reddy College and few more.

He is associated with many NGO's and NPO's which helped him to level up his leadership qualities, management, training, and other skills. He is part of prestigious youth wing of rotary international and served as president, vice-president and trainer of Rotaract club of new age engineers which started in KG Reddy college of engineering and technology in the year 2014. In Rotaract he help up with professional services director and assistant district Rotaract representative. He served in lead roles for social service organizations named S Square club, Lead India 2020, Young minds, and few more.

Mr. Uday Chaitanya is a member of KGRCET alumni association, selected as secretary and now He is the president for Alumni association of KG Reddy College of engineering and technology.